OF
THE UNITED STATES FOR
THE YEAR ENDING JUNE 30, 1857.

PUBLISHED UNDER ACT OF CONGRESS OF SEPTEMBER 16, 1850.

WASHINGTON:
A. O. P. NICHOLSON PRINTER.
1857.

SECRETARY OF THE TREASURY

COMMERCIAL AND MINING

UNITED STATES

COMMERCE AND NAVIGATION.

TREASURY DEPARTMENT,

October 20, 1857.

SIR: In compliance with the provisions of the first section of the act of 16th September, 1850, entitled "An act to provide for printing the Annual Report upon Commerce and Navigation," which makes it the duty of the Secretary of the Treasury to cause the said report to be completed at as early a day before the first Monday of January in each year as is practicable, I have the honor to state that the report for the year ending June 30, 1857, has now been completed and placed in the hands of the Public Printer.

The printing, binding, and distribution of the usual number of copies prepared for the use of the members of the two houses of Congress and their officers, will be accomplished by the day of their approaching meeting, and, consequently, five weeks in advance of the time limited in the act for that purpose.

In order to show the distributive commerce of the United States, the additional tables introduced last year, exhibiting the quantity and value of foreign imports entered in each district, respectively, and the quantity and value of foreign and domestic articles exported from each district, have been continued, as also the additional statements of navigation.

The volume, as thus presented, will therefore exhibit the following particulars:

1. A general statement of the exports of domestic produce, the quantity and value shipped to each country, the amount in American vessels, in foreign vessels, and the aggregate value.
2. A summary of the same, with the articles and their value, classified under the several heads of production.
3. A general statement of articles of foreign merchandise exported, and the quantity and value shipped to each country.
4. A summary of the value of foreign merchandise exported, with the amount in American vessels, in foreign vessels, and the aggregate value.

5. A general statement of imports, the countries from whence imported, with the quantity and value of each class of merchandise.

6. A summary of the value of imports in American vessels, in foreign vessels, the value from each country, and the aggregate value.

7. A statement exhibiting the quantity and value of domestic produce exported from each collection district of the country.

8. A statement exhibiting the quantity and value of foreign merchandise exported from each collection district.

9. A statement exhibiting the quantity and value of foreign merchandise imported into each collection district.

10. Tonnage of American and foreign vessels cleared.

11. Tonnage of American and foreign vessels entered.

12. Tonnage and national character of foreign vessels entered and cleared.

13. Statistical view of the commerce of the United States.

14. Statistical view of the commerce of each State and Territory.

15. Tonnage of American and foreign vessels cleared from each district.

16. Tonnage of American and foreign vessels entered into each district.

17. Countries to which American and foreign vessels cleared from each district.

18. Countries from which American and foreign vessels arrived in each district.

19. Imports indirect.

20. Summary of the same.

21. Tonnage of the several districts of the United States.

22. Condensed view of the tonnage of the several districts of the United States.

23. Number and class of vessels built during the year 1857.

24. Comparative view of the registered and enrolled tonnage from 1815 to 1857.

25. Number and class of vessels built from 1815 to 1857.

I have the honor to be your obedient servant,

HOWELL COBB,

Secretary of the Treasury.

To the PRESIDENT OF THE SENATE

And the SPEAKER OF THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

TREASURY DEPARTMENT,
Register's Office, October 20, 1857.

SIR: I have the honor herewith to transmit the commercial and tonnage statements for the year ending 30th June, 1857, compiled in this office from the quarterly returns made to it by the several collectors of customs under the act of February 10, 1820, being completed, with a single exception, earlier than ever before.

I am, very respectfully, your obedient servant,

F. BIGGER,
Register.

Hon. HOWELL COBB,
Secretary of the Treasury.

AN ACT to provide for the printing of the Annual Report upon Commerce and Navigation.

SEC. 1. Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That it shall be the duty of the Secretary of the Treasury to cause the Annual Report upon Commerce and Navigation to be completed at as early a day before the first Monday in January in each year as is practicable.

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That when completed, or in the course of its progress towards completion, if that will give despatch to the business, the work of printing, under the superintendence of said Secretary, shall be commenced, and the whole shall be printed and ready for delivery on or before the first day of January next ensuing the close of the fiscal year to which the report relates.

SEC. 3. And be it further enacted, That, until Congress shall otherwise direct, the Secretary of the Treasury shall cause to be printed, in the same manner as other printing of the department, twenty thousand copies of said report, which shall be distributed as follows: first, the usual number for the use of the members of the two houses and their officers; second, five hundred copies for the use of the Treasury Department; and, thirdly, as nearly as may be, five thousand copies to the Senate, and thirteen thousand copies to the House, to be distributed by the members of each house.

SEC. 4. And be it further enacted, That the report aforesaid, except such as are to be bound with other public documents, shall be substantially bound: Provided, That the expense thereof shall not exceed twelve and a half cents for each copy.

Approved September 16, 1850.
